Fire Risk Assessment Training

This course has been designed to give candidates an understanding of fire safety and legislation appropriate to their type of premises which will enable them to carry out a suitable and sufficient fire risk assessment.

Course content:

- Applicable legislation
- Chemistry of combustion
- Fire safety design
- The five steps to fire risk assessment
- Identifying hazards
- Quantifying risk
- Control measures
- Record keeping and reviewing
- Practical exercise

Who should attend this course? – all managers and others expected to carry out fire risk assessment of the workplace.

This half-day training course can be run at your premises.

Our price includes:

- Certification
- Dynamic & fun training
- All course material
- Practical use of fire extinguishers

Please contact us to discuss costings.