

This 1-day accredited course and additional practical assessment period of up to 13 hours and is designed for any employee required to carry out risk assessments.

Our price includes:

- Registration and Certification
- Dynamic & fun training
- All course materials

Please contact us to discuss costings.

Risk Assessment – Principles and Practice

Risk Assessment Principles and Practice is designed for anyone with the responsibility to conduct risk assessments. It is particularly useful for managers and supervisors, but it will be equally beneficial to individual workers, team leaders, technicians or any other employees contributing to the risk assessment process.

Completion of the training programme and assessment will enable candidates to:

- Contribute to the risk assessment programme at work;
- Conduct effective risk assessments in the workplace;
- Organise and implement a risk assessment programme;
- Be able to identify specific training needs raised by through risk assessment;
- Assist their employers meet their legal requirements.

Course contents:

- Main causes of accidents and ill health, and their implications for people in the workplace;
- The key legal requirements for risk assessment;
- Principles of risk assessment including:
 - The reasons for using risk assessment
 - The risk assessment process
 - The key skills of an assessor
- Risk assessment in practice with the workplace;
- The wider management issues regarding the implementation of risk assessment program.